SAY!

(By CHARLES J. ARNOLD)

SYMPATHY—
THAT'S JUST WHAT I WANT
I do not think it fair, to you, my friends to keep from you the "personal" comment I am receiving regarding this column. Ever then and now I receive most "complimentary" comment on my writings. For instance, this very morning there came to me a letter.

Greencastle, Indiana
June 23, 1929

Mr. Charles J. Arnold,
Alias "Say",
Greencastle,
Dear Mr. Arnold:—

A graduate of DePauw University and a student of literature for many years, I cannot refrain from writing regarding your alleged poetry, which spasmodically appears in your column.

Do you really believe that it has any merit?

Truly, Mr. Arnold, it is terrible!!! It is as a friend that I am writing you. If you are honest in believing that your verse—if we could call it "verse"—is good I can but pity you. Please do not misinterpret this letter. I am sincere, and as a friend I am asking that you refrain from further attempts.

With Love and Sympathy,
A FRIEND

My answer is: "Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis fun to be a blither."

A news dispatch from Anderson says a large snake, 32 feet long, weighing 400 pounds and valued at $10,000 is dead in that city from over eating. As far as I am concerned I will sell my interest in all the snakes in the world for a dime, and then give the dime back. What anyone would want with a snake is more than I can imagine. The last time I had any—but why bring that up.

Only 10 more days until July Fourth. But beware. Don't do your "popping" early or the officers will get you.

TRY THIS ONE ON YOUR CAMPHOR BOTTLE

When summer comes, the cool dense woods

To one is most inviting
'Tis there you hear the birds sing
And feel the chiggers biting
The chigger 'tis a little mite
But goodness me, how it can bite!!

You cannot see them as they crawl
Upon your leg or ankle
But when they once sit down to eat
They sure spot's all to rankle
A little red spot's all you see
But how it itches, goodness me!!!

And scratching doesn't help a bit
They burrow 'neath the skin
And every time you scratch at one
You shove him further in
A chigger is not very big
But in the flesh he sure can dig!!!
The chiggers, although small it be
Sure has a lot of kick
So if they ever get on you
The camphor bottle, quick!!
For that's the only thing, they say
That'll take that chigger itch away.

RETIRED MARTINSVILLE TEACHER KILLS HIMSELF

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., June 23.—Walter Butler, 51 years old, committed suicide at his home this morning by inhaling gas. The family had been away from home and his son, Attorney Gilbert Butler, on returning found the body in the kitchen.

Mr. Butler had taught school and had been engaged in the grocery business until about a year ago and at one time was recorder of Morgan county.

It was thought despondency over ill health was the cause of the suicide.

He is survived by the widow, the son, one brother, Richard Butler of Indianapolis; two sisters, Mrs. William Brown of Mooresville and Mrs. Blanche Allee of Gosport, and three half-sisters, Mrs. Melvin Dow of this city, Mrs. Kate Dean of Paragon and Miss Sarah Butler of Indianapolis.

Mr. Butler is well known around Belle Union and in south Putnam county where he has several relatives.

PROMINENT IN REPUBLICAN POLITICS

SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 24.—(INS)—Conrad J. Bivin was named with Andrew Kek and a third person in a liquor conspiracy bill. The indictment was secret until Bivin and his attorney appeared at the government office here and posted a $1,000 bond. Bivin also was named as one of the principal figures in another liquor conspiracy case.

Bivin was one of the first to give bond of the 176 persons named in 97 indictments for whom capias were issued Saturday.

Mrs. Lloyd was fatally burned when kerosene she used in starting a fire in the kitchen range exploded and enveloped her in flames. Running into the yard the unfortunate woman attempted to extinguish the fire by rolling on the ground.

SNOOK ENTERS NOT GUILTY PLEA TODAY

CONFESSED SLAYER OF ATTRACTIVE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY ARRAIGNED IN CRIMINAL COURT TODAY

TRIAL SET FOR JULY 22

Plea in Spite of Formal Confession That He Hammered Miss Theora K. Hix To Death June 18

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 24.—James H. Snook, confessed slayer of Miss Theora K. Hix, attractive 24-year-old Ohio State University co-ed, today pleaded not guilty when arraigned in criminal court.

Date for his trial was set by Judge Robert Duncan for July 22.

The "not guilty" plea by Snook was made in spite of the fact that he had signed, after an eighteen hour police grilling, a formal confession that he hammered and knifed the girl to death on the night of June 18 "because she had threatened to kill his wife and baby."

The ex-college professor was handcuffed to another prisoner, also accused of murder, when he was arraigned. "What is your plea—guilty or not guilty?" asked Judge Duncan, addressing Snook.

"Not guilty," replied Snook in a clear, firm voice.

Prosecuting attorney John J. Chester then announced that an agreement had been reached with the judges of the court of Common Pleas to set the defendant's trial for July 22.

Objection was immediately made by E. O. Ricketts, of counsel for Snook. He said that the date was too soon and would not give defense counsel sufficient time to prepare their case.

"I believe you will have ample time," replied the judge, overruling the objection.

Counsel for Snook later announced that before the date of the trial he will file a motion for a change of venue on the ground that it would be impossible for the defendant to obtain a fair trial in Franklin county, because of the condition of public sentiment.

TWO JURY TRIALS SET THIS WEEK

Two jury trials are set for trial in the Putnam Circuit court this week. They are the Verne Terry trial on Thursday and the Otho Coffman trial on Friday.

Terry is charged with assault and battery with intent, as a result of using a knife in an affray with Frank Lane, night foreman of the local cement plant, several weeks ago. Terry, who resides at Belle Union, is alleged to have attacked Lane with a knife following a quarrel after being discharged by Lane.

Sentiment is divided in the Terry case, it is said, and it is believed the case will last for more than one day if it goes to trial this term of court. This would postpone the Coffman case.

Coffman, who lives in the Oakalla neighborhood, is charged with petit larceny in connection with the theft of some chickens from the farm of Ed. Stone, southeast of Greencastle. Coffman also has asked for a jury, it is said.

DRINK CRAZED MAN FLINGS WOMAN TO DEATH

PARALYZED MOTHER OF ROSS ALLISON, 42, WITNESSES SORDID TRAGEDY AT HOME IN INDIANAPOLIS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 24.—(INS)—Mrs. Ida M. Davis, 52, of Worthington, a housekeeper, was dead here today from injuries received when hurled violently from a porch to a cement sidewalk by an alleged drink infuriated man who was being sought by police.

The woman, police said, received a fractured skull when shoved off the porch by Ross Allison, 42, who then engaged in a fist fight with his 64-year old father, Charles Allison, and then fled.

The tragedy occurred late last night when the older Allison and Mrs. Davis returned from a church basket dinner at Worthington. Upon their return to the Allison home they found the home locked up. The son alleged to be intoxicated was inside the building but refused their admittance.

Mrs. Davis went to the front of the house and got on the porch and tried to open the front door. The older Allison followed and reached the porch in time to see his son fling Mrs. Davis off the porch. Father and son closed in a savage fight but the younger man broke away and escaped. When the older Allison turned to look after Mrs. Davis he found her dead.

Mrs. Allison mother of the younger man, who was paralyzed for four years, was a helpless witness of the sordid tragedy.

AIRCRAFT AND SHIPS SEARCH FOR 3 FLYERS

SPANISH AIRMEN NOW TWO DAYS OVERDUE AT AZORES ON FIRST LEG OF THEIR FLIGHT ACROSS
ATLANTIC

RED FLARE IS SIGHTED

Spanish Government Makes Admission That Airmen Failed to Reach First Objective As Rumored

LONDON, June 24.—(INS)—A wireless message received in Madrid from an unknown source states that a steamer named Magallanes has found an abandoned hydroplane, believed to be that of Major Ramon Franco, about 100 miles from the Azores, according to an exchange telegraph message from Madrid today.

The dispatch adds that there is no official confirmation of the report, although efforts are being made to verify its source.

Four Spanish destroyers have been sent out from Ferrol to search for Major Franco, who with three companions is missing on an attempted flight across the Atlantic by way of the Azores.

The report telling of the sighting of the drifting plane gave no details as to condition of the wreckage, nor did it cite any characteristic which would show beyond doubt that the plane was Major Franco's huge Dornier-Wahl hydroplane "Numancia."

According to the dispatch, the report is accepted with considerable reserve, but every attempt is being made to determine its authenticity. The report stated that the floating plane was sighted some 100 miles off the Azores, but neither the exact position nor news of by whom the wreckage was sighted was contained in the report.

LONDON, June 24.—(INS)—A widespread search by aircraft and ships of several nations was instituted today for Major Ramon Franco and his three companions, Captains Sallario and Ruiz of Alda and mechanic Pedro Madariaga, now more than two days overdue at the Azores in the first leg of their attempt to fly across the Atlantic.

Four destroyers and two squadrons of airplanes have been ordered out on search of the airmen by the Spanish government, according to central news dispatch from Paris.

Portuguese gunboats already are scouring the waters about the Azores and east of the islands. Numerous craft of other nations are also taking a hand in the search.

While grave concern for the fliers' safety is felt in other quarters, Madrid dispatches received here were optimistic. The Spanish government expressed the confidence in the ability of the airmen's plane, the Numancia, to ride the seas if it had been forced down.

The Numancia, a huge twin-motored Cornier-Wahl model, is equipped with pontoons. The fliers however, had not overstocked themselves with food when they left Cartagena, Spain, at 5 p. m. Friday (noon N. Y.) and may suffer the pangs of hunger if their craft survives the other perils of a Trans-Atlantic flight.

The Spanish government's admission that reports that the airmen had landed in the Azores were without foundation laid at rest numerous conflicting rumors which cropped up from many sources.

NEW YORK, June 24.—(INS)—A red flare sighted in mid-ocean half way between the Azores and New York by American freighter may solve the mystery surrounding the whereabouts of the Spanish Trans-Atlantic fliers, Major Franco and his three companions, it was believed today.

The flare was sighted by the S. S. Buffalo bridge at 5:40 a. m. Green-which meridian time, (12:40 a. m. New York Daylight Time) Sunday.

YANKEES SLOWED IN PENNANT RACE

By LES CONKLIN
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 24.—Apparently stymied in their effort to win their fourth straight pennant, the once all-conquering Yankees were marking time today pending the opening of their three-game series starting in Philadelphia on Thursday when they will make one more try to cut into the lead of the triumphant Athletics. They will need to make a clean sweep of this series to get back into the running for the series concluded here yesterday when the A's won the fifth and deciding game saw the Mackmen increase their lead from 7½ to 8½ games.

Stealing the champions' thunder, Simmons, Foxx and Haas put on a home run barrage that netted a 7 to 4 victory. Buster Gehrig's 20th homer offered in rebuttal was not enough.

And while Ehmske and Earnshaw were outpitching Wells and Zachary of the Yanks, Myles Thomas released by Huggins to Washington on waivers, held the Red Sox to 4 hits and beat them 7 to 1, a performance that would have turned the tide for the Yanks yesterday.

While 50,000 disgruntled fans watched the Yankees lose 48,000 equally morose Chicago fans saw the Pirates lambast the Cubs, 8 to 7, for the third time in as many days. A single by little poison Wanner in the eighth broke up the party. The Cubs now lead the second place Cubs by 2½ games.

Brooklyn nased out the Giants, 9 to 8, shattering the six-game winning streak of the McGrawmen.

The Cardinals also came a cropper when they were beaten by Red Lucas of Cincinnati, 4 to 2. Hald relieved Frankhouse on the mound for St. Louis in the eighth just in time to be nicked for the winning runs.

The other St. Louis team, the Browns, are now faring better than their intercity rivals. They tied the Yanks for second place in the American League scramble by coming from behind to beat the White Sox 6 to 5, Sam turning in his eleventh win of the season.

Cleveland knocked George Uhle out of the box in the seventh but Detroit came back with a tally in the eighth to gain an 8 to 7 decision.

The Braves two-timed the Phillies, 5 to 1 and 7 to 5, to tie Brooklyn for fifth place.

Continuation B
when the ship was approximately 1400 miles due east of New York and 540 miles southeast of Cape Race, N. F., according to radio message received by the radio Marine corporation here.

According to the Buffalo Bridge's message the ship's position was 40.04 north latitude and 50.57 west longitude when the flare was sighted.

The sighting of the flare gave rise to the theory that the fliers, who were due at the Azores two days ago might have decided to continue past those islands in the hope of making the American mainland in one hop.

TUNNEY FILES ANSWER TO SUIT

NEW YORK, June 24.—(INS)—Charging extortion, Gene Tunney, retired heavyweight champion, thru his attorneys, today filed an answer to the $500,000 breach of promise suit brought against him by Mrs. Katherine King Fogarty.

The answer and cross-complaint was filed in Fairfield County, Conn., where Mrs. Fogarty's action was instituted and was made public in New York by attorney Homer Cummings of Stamford, Conn., associated with Tunney's attorneys of Record, Chadbourne, Stansfield and Levy.

Alleged copies of releases of any claims against Tunney signed by Mrs. Fogarty were attached to the document filed. One release dated July 24, 1928, read "in consideration of the sum of $35,000." Another was dated May 25, 1927, and cited "in consideration of the sum of one dollar." Counsel declined to comment on whether further money had been paid in connection with this latter document.

The answer states in part that the plaintiff—"knowingly has abused and is abusing the processes of this court and has used and continues to use and employ the same for the unlawful purposes, more particularly set forth as follows:

"A. To vex and trouble the defendant unlawfully;

"B. To extort money from the defendant;

"C. To gain, for the publication of libelous charges against the defendant, immunity from the penalties, civil and criminal, of the law of libel by relying upon the privilege incident to pending litigation;

"D. To secure large sums of money from newspapers and from notoriety distributing agencies willing to pay for her statements, photographs and services."

EDUCATION NO CURE FOR CRIME

CHICAGO, June 24.—(INS)—More than 50,000 Lutherans from the Middle West and states in the East, West and South today pondered the admonition of Prof. W. A. Maier of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, that fewer laws and a better observance of them provided the only force that can keep the country from moral bankruptcy.

Prof. Maier was the principal speaker at Soldier field here, where Lutherans gathered at the 400th anniversary of Martin Luther's catechism.

"Some insist that education can counteract the development of crime and offer intelligence as a cure of vice," Dr. Maier said. "But an uneducated thief will steal a ride on a train, while an educated thief will steal the whole railway system."

"We believe that the remedy is to be found, not in any new departure, but in the old path which Martin Luther followed in the very first words of his catechism: 'We should fear love and trust in God above all things.'"

"The American home is racing dissolution and ruin; it is being broken up by the insidious influences of outside attractions and amusements. If this is permitted to continue, the church of Jesus Christ will soon be face to face with hopeless problems, and our great country will find itself going the way of Greece and Rome."

The thousand Lutheran churches in the Middle-West area participated in the celebration. Among those who attended were 2,000 delegates to the Missouri synod of the church.

THE VONCASTLE

"Scandal" So'n Here
Starring Laura LaPlante
Universal's absorbing drama, "Scandal," starring Laura La Plante has been booked by the Voncastles Theatre to start Tuesday, the management announces.

Adapted for the screen from "The Haunted Lady," a magazine story by Adela Rogers St. Johns, "Scandal" is said to be one of the most unusual dramas of society filmed in many seasons. As a story it was widely commented upon, and as a picture it has attained a popular success.

The love of a former suitor for a happily married woman, at the pinnacle of Santa Barbara's exclusive social circles, causes the plot situation. The suitor makes a clandestine call upon her, only to learn later that this visit is his only alibi when he is accused of a murder that occurred while he was there.

To save the woman's reputation he does not tell his alibi. This places the decision upon her shoulders. What she does in this desperate predicament is the crux of the story.

Laura La Plante, in the starring role, is the woman. Huntly Gordon is her handsome, polo-playing husband and John Boles is the suitor. Miss La Plante's performance is one of the finest of the season. Wesley Ruggles, the director, has made the picture a brilliant and piercing drama of a woman's heart and of millionaire society.

When your child "outgrows his strength or is weakened by illness he should be given remedies known as "food tonics" to rebuild solid flesh and produce rich red blood. For this purpose, physicians prescribe cod liver oil and iron.

Chemists now extract the vitamins and flesh-building elements from cod liver oil and throw the nasty, useless oil away. They combine these extracts with blood-building iron in easy-to-take tablet form. To get the genuine, specify Burke's Cod Liver Oil and Iron Tablets at the drug store. Speaking of the school, which is an outgrowth of the two days' Rural Life conference which has been held each July as a special feature of the regular Purdue university summer session, President Edward C. This betterment requires informed and inspired betterment of the rural and village communities of the state. This betterment requires informed and inspired crusaders."

Some church groups are offering scholarships to the school to a limited number of their ministers, while a number county-seat commercial organizations and farm bureau units will give financial assistance to rural leaders in their respective communities.

TWO LOCAL EDUCATORS TO TOUR EUROPE

DEAN L. H. DIRKS and PRINCIPAL ALBERT W. HEAVIN TO STUDY CONDITIONS OF SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION IN VARIOUS EUROPEAN COUNTRIES

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., June 22.—Dean L. H. Smith of the Indiana university school of education will lead a group of American educators this summer on a tour of Europe for the purpose of studying problems of school administration in various European countries.

The plan of comparative study of school administration by actually visiting the countries studied and by direct contact with European educators is said to be unique in the history of research work in education.

In the group of American educators accompanying Dean Smith on the research tour will be a number of men well known in Indiana educational circles. Dean Louis H. Dirks of DePauw university is one of these. Another is Prof. R. E. Cavanaugh, director of the Indiana university extension division.

Public schoolmen to make the trip include Charles A. Collier, principal of the Bruns City high school; Albert W. Heavin, principal of the Bainbridge high school and A. B. Williamson of the South Bend high school. Miss Elizabeth McAllister of St. Petersburg, Fla., is one of the women educators who will make the trip.

Mrs. Smith, wife of Dean Smith; her daughters Martha and Ruth and her son Henry, will be on the tour. Mrs. Smith and her children will remain in Europe for a year but Dean Smith will return to take up his duties at the University again in the fall.

The itinerary opens July 11 at Montreal. The party is scheduled to arrive at Cherbourg July 20 and at Paris the next day. After six days in the French capital and vicinity, the educators will journey to Geneva where they will arrive July 26 in time for the educational congress at the Swiss capital. The schoolmen will attend the various sessions of the educational congress and will then go to Milan and Venice for a study of Italian educational administrative problems.

Thence they will go to Munich, where the party will visit the university, which at that time will be headquarters for Indiana university's European music school. After a two days' visit at the University of Munich, the Bavarian schools and the famous mechanical museum, Dean Smith will lead his party on to Dresden for an inspection of the school system there. Berlin will be reached August 14 and Amsterdam three days later. The Hague will be included on the itinerary.

A week in London, with visits to the important museums, galleries and schools and a three-day motor tour to the Thames valley, Oxford and the Shakespeare country will conclude the European study tour. Sailing is scheduled from Southampton on August 27, with arrival in New York September 2.

2ND PILGRIMAGE TO HOLY CROSS STARTS JULY 8

DENVER, June 24.—(INS)—The second annual nation-wide pilgrimage of Christians to the Mount of the Holy Cross, in central Colorado, will take place during the ten days beginning Monday, July 8. Already persons have registered for the trip from almost every state, and from England, France and Italy.

The recent action of President Hoover in making this great natural shrine a National Monument has attracted widespread attention, with a corresponding growth of popularity for the pilgrimages.

These annual pilgrimages are entirely non-denominational, and they are not held for profit. Ministers from every Christian sect participate.

Paid By Subscription

Most of the expensive features of the pilgrimage are cared for by subscriptions from wealthy Coloradans.

The Mount of the Holy Cross is the most widely-known natural emblem of the Christian faith. The Mount is 13,896 feet above sea level and upon its brow two perpetual beds of snow fill deep intersecting fissures, forming a perfect cross that is 1,200 feet tall and 400 feet wide.

The religious services of the pilgrimage are held upon the summit of Notch Mountain, directly facing the Cross at a distance of one mile. Pilgrims reach this point from the base camp, four miles below, by foot or horseback. In the camp some of the pilgrims take their meals at the central dining hall, while others bring their camp equipment and camp out for themselves. Participation in the daily religious services is not compulsory.

Start From Denver

Most of the pilgrims start from Denver on Sunday, July 7, going to Minturn, Colo., which is the gateway for the Mount on both the railroad and the main automobile highway. They go up to Camp Tigiwon, the base camp, the following day and start the pilgrimages from there.

The Mount of the Holy Cross is in the heart of the grandest peaks of the Colorado Rockies, where the scenery is magnificent and fishing is fine.

RHEUMATIC PAIN QUICKLY ROUTED BY NEW KONJOLA

Kidney Troubles, Too, Yield To Powers Of New And Different Medicine.

MR. F. P. COOK

"I can readily understand why Konjola has been able to earn the enviable reputation of being the medicine with more than a million friends," said Mr. F. P. Cook, 1837 Erie avenue, Logansport. "I suffered from rheumatism and kidney trouble. Five years ago these ailments overtook me, and there wasn't a remedy that helped me. My back, legs, shoulders and arms bothered me constantly. Kidney pains shot through my back, and I had to rise four or five times a night."

"In three weeks Konjola corrected my whole system. Poisons were swept away and the rheumatic pains took flight. There isn't an ache or pain left. My kidneys have been restored to a normal condition. All the old troubles are gone! No money could buy the new health that Konjola has brought me."

Konjola is sold in Greencastle at the Owl drug store and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

STILESVILLE WINS GAME

The Stilesville baseball club defeated the Cloverdale team at Stilesville, Sunday afternoon, in a last inning rally when they scored three runs to nose out a 3 to 2 victory. Up until the fatal ninth inning the Cloverdale nine had led, 2 to 0.

Sackett and Ray was the battery for Cloverdale and Dean and Kelly for Stilesville.

In a previous game played at Cloverdale the Putnam County boys won 8 to 7. The tie game will be played off at Cloverdale later in the season.

The game at Stilesville yesterday was one of the best seen in this part of the state recently, it was said. Sparkling double plays and other features kept the fans keyed up for new developments.

One feature of the game was a three-base hit in the seventh inning by Wilbur "Red" Paris of this city who went in to pinch-hit for Stilesville. It was the only three-base hit of the game.

WEATHER FORCES SCHOENHAIR DOWN

DUBOIS, Pa., June 23.—Lee Schoenhair, aviator who left Los Angeles, Cal., yesterday for New York, landed here today because of bad weather and in an attempt to take off later, his plane was damaged. Schoenhair was not injured.

Schoenhair said he would repair his ship here and then continue the trip to New York. The fuselage and landing gear were damaged and he estimated it would be three or four days before he could take off. The aviator said he would fly from New York to Los Angeles and then would attempt another nonstop flight from the West coast to the East.

The present hop which started at Los Angeles early yesterday was a projected nonstop affair but Schoenhair was forced down at Cleveland, O., last night because of lack of oil. Schoenhair said he received only a "bump" on the head in the accident today.

DRIVER SEVERELY INJURED

BRAZIL, Ind., June 23.—Monroe Yeager of Shelbyville was probably fatally injured when his car turned over after throwing a tire in the first five-mile race in the Sunflower speedway today. Yeager was taken to the Clay County hospital suffering with injuries to the base of the brain, a broken nose and both wrists and ankles sprained. He was badly hurt in an accident at Sunflower park two years ago.

Bob Steele of Indianapolis escaped with slight injuries in another accident today.

Benny Benefiel of Indianapolis, won the fifteen-mile race in 14:14. Ira Hall, Terre Haute, ran the last five laps on a flat tire. Hall finished second and Howdy Wilcox, Indianapolis, third.

17TH DROWNING

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 24.—(INS)—Emil Elikoff, 20, was drowned while swimming in the Ohio River here. His body was recovered after several hours of searching.

This was the 17th drowning in Indiana since June 17th when the warm weather started.

WIDELY SOUGHT GANGSTER KILLED

KAKNSAS CITY, Mo., June 24.—(INS)—Ben Barretti, notorious Chicago racketeer and former pal of the late "Big Tim" Murphy, and Arthur Hartman, a gangster from St. Louis, were dead today and another associate was wounded as a result of a pistol battle last night in front of the LaSalle Hotel in the fashionable Linwood boulevard district. The assailants escaped.

Keans Humphrey, the third victim, tottered into an automobile which leaped away but crashed into another car and he tumbled to the street, bleeding from a wound in the back.

Barretti, one of the most widely known racketeers in Chicago, fled in 1927, forfeiting a bond of $85,000 on a murder indictment in connection with the killing of Mike Kinsane, politician and saloon-keeper. In Los Angeles police reported he killed Max Silverstein in a holdup last March. He also was sought for a murder in Galveston, Tex., and for payroll robberies.

Favorite in Open

In spite of his long lay-off from actual competition on the links to study his law, Bobby Jones, Atlanta mashie and niblick artist, is considered one of the surest bets to cop the open at Mamaroneck, N. Y., when the Wingfoot course welcomes the cream of the world's golfers. Bobby will have stiff competition but he just revels in tough going. He has engaged in more playoffs for the championship than any other golfer—inwood against Bobby Cruickshank, Worcester with Willie MacFarlane and Olympia Fields vs. Johnny Farrell—beating Cruickshank, but losing the others.

NEWPORT LAWYER ELECTED TO HEAD 5TH DISTRICT BAR

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 23.—Bert Conley of Newport was elected president of the Fifth District Bar Association and George Ira Kiser of Terre Haute was re-elected secretary-treasurer when attorneys gathered at Turkey Run state park for their annual meeting yesterday. On the invitation of Frank R. Miller, president of the Terre Haute Bar Association, they chose Terre Haute as the meeting place for next year at approximately the same date.

James M. Ogden, attorney general of Indiana, was the principal speaker of the day, taking as his subject the proposed constitutional convention, on which the 1929 Legislature provided the state will vote in 1930.

"I don't know whether a constitutional convention should be called or not," Mr. Ogden said, "but I do feel that there are some changes needed in the Indiana constitution."

The two chief changes which might be made, he said, would be tax reforms and the question of "home rule" for cities, making them free to act by constitutional provision rather than dependent on specific acts of the Legislature.

BODIES FOUND IN AUTO

LINDY GETS BY

NORTH BERGEN, N. J., June 22.—(INS)—Some people get bawled out, some get fined and some go to jail for violating traffic laws—but hardly a Lindbergh.

Charles A.—the famous colonel of the clouds—drove past a detour sign on Palisade avenue, en route for the home of his parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow at Englewood.

"Hey, you —" began Patrolman William Rainer.

The Lindbergh emerged from his automobile and smiled like he never does for pursuing cameramen.

He got away with it.
